

Spirit Awakening™

What is Spirit Awakening

Many people have requested an opportunity to receive Grace directly from a Radiant Master, so Spirit Awakening was created to meet that desire of sincere people. Radiant Masters are fully spiritually realized, enlightened masters who are established at the level of Omnipresent Consciousness and can directly create a state of full enlightenment in anyone. Spirit Awakening is a group meeting during which time you are able to spend a short time directly with a Radiant Master to awaken Infinite Spirit within you. A Spirit Awakening Group Session is open to the public and there is no charge for the event. It is intended for those who feel intuitively drawn to Radiant Spirit, and have a strong desire to receive Grace directly. It is not intended as an introductory meeting ... there is no lecture and no group discussion. Since the giving of Grace is the enlivenment of Infinite Spirit within a person, the emphasis is on the inner experience of expansion at one's deepest level of Spirit. Everything is handled in silence.

What It Does

Grace is the natural ability of a person living in Omnipresent Consciousness to enliven Infinite Spirit within a person, while simultaneously dissolving any blocks to the full unfoldment of Infinity through all aspects of a person's life ... unleashing your full potential. Grace is a gift of infinite love that is outside the limits of karma, and thus can free a person regardless of his past actions or spiritual limits. During Spirit Awakening you will receive the "seed" of Enlightenment; namely the gift of Infinite Spirit will be established within you, and that will naturally unfold to Enlightenment over time.

Enlightenment can be defined as a state of spontaneously living infinite creativity and all possibilities, either at the level of Unity Consciousness, or Omnipresent Consciousness. It is living the full potential of a person's life; ranging from silent, infinite awareness to the joy of its' expression into all levels of creation. Living enlightenment means that you directly experience yourself as pure, silent, infinite awareness, while also experiencing the world as this same pure, infinite awareness ... you are unified with creation at the level of pure spirit. This is your core level of awareness, a new and profound state of being. You no longer live your life in illusion, from a limiting perspective; you have experientially transcended all viewpoints, and your life has become an expression of reality from the level of the essential reality of unbounded, infinite, pure spirit.

On a practical level, living an enlightened life means that there is harmony in all areas of your life because all the parts of your being: spirit, heart, intellect and body are completely integrated. There is no longer any internal conflict between your head and heart about how to act or what to do.

There is an automatic knowingness about what to do in every situation. You find an intimacy with all people you meet and all encounters with nature because the same infinite pure spirit that is your essential nature, is also the essential nature of the entire Universe. Every encounter feels dear to you because of this intimate connection. You feel a fullness in all areas of your life because your ability to express life's creativity in your relationships, and work roles is 100% at all times. Relationships blossom, your work talents grow, and your love flows spontaneously in every situation. This is our natural state of being, how all life is meant to be lived. In addition to Enlightenment bringing you a life of infinite personal fulfillment, you are also a positive force for good in the world for every person you encounter.

This has nothing to do with belief, religion, or philosophy. There are no techniques to practice or lifestyle to adopt. Living enlightenment is a direct experience. It is a level of consciousness that is a baseline for all of your experiences. Living enlightenment also means that you express the infinite level of life's creativity in all that you do. This means you spontaneously experience happiness, and fulfillment in your work and relationships, as well as harmony and peace within yourself and with others.

What To Expect at Spirit Awakening

While everyone is seated quietly in the meeting room, one person at a time will go to the front of the room and sit next to a Radiant Master. Being relaxed and with eyes closed you need not do anything to receive the full benefit. The Radiant Master will put his attention on the level of your Spirit as you receive Grace, which lasts for about five minutes. You will then be quietly directed to return to your seat. At this time it is beneficial to sit quietly and let your system assimilate what has been given. The experiences right after receiving Grace vary from person to person. Many people report an immediate expansion of awareness and a feeling of being free in consciousness as never before. Some people feel a warmth in their body, or energy flowing up their spine. Since the giving of Grace also involves the dissolution of blocks within a person, some people feel an awareness of old emotions or feelings, and then feel them disappearing. Some people do not notice a great contrast immediately, but feel a noticeable expansion of awareness over the coming days. No particular experience is more valid than any other, and it's not beneficial to try to have a particular experience; we suggest you just enjoy your experiences innocently as they come. The Radiant Master's Grace will provide whatever is needed specifically for you at this specific moment in time, so relax and enjoy as the journey of Infinity unfolds itself.

Once you've received Grace from a Radiant Master during Spirit Awakening, enlightenment unfolds naturally over a period of time. The Infinite level of life's creativity and possibilities unfold from the deepest parts of you through the most expressed. First the potential "blueprint" of your soul is purified and expanded, then you experience your spirit, heart, intellect, body, and your relationship to the world being purified and expanded to an infinite level of creativity and fulfillment. If you cooperate with the process by openly accepting the growth, then it will go most quickly and enjoyably. No intellectual knowledge is necessary once Grace is given. Personal contact and guidance from a Radiant Master can also help to quicken the process, and is available for those few who are truly open and sincerely desire to enhance their own growth, and help the world.

The Requirements
